

REMEMBERING THE INCREDIBLE WOMEN WE WORK WITH

NABIYAT

Championing Education for Girls

Nabiyat has reshaped attitudes towards girls' education in Umerkot, mobilising families and enabling 80 girls to attend school where there were once almost none, ensuring no girl is left behind.

JAMTI

Inspiring Change in the Face of Tradition

Jamti became a catalyst for change within her own home by arranging the remarriage of her widowed daughter-in-law. In doing so, she challenged deep-rooted traditions in her community, embodying dignity, compassion, and transformation.

SALMA

Rising above barriers
with each thread

Salma lives in Afghanistan as a returnee and a single mother of three daughters. Without a male provider, she supports her children by making traditional embroidered caps, despite limited work opportunities, demonstrating unwavering dedication as both a mother and a guardian.

SAMPA

Uplifting Women Through Skill Development

Sampa, from Mirpurkhas, Sindh, empowers women by supporting farming and guiding land preparation. She has built 60,000 mud stoves and trained many other women in this skill along with constructing 5,000 low-cost homes, improving living conditions.

Her work inspires women to seek opportunities beyond their village as 10 of her mentees now work internationally.

DAI BAI

Pioneering Gender-Inclusive Change

Dai Bai has advanced gender inclusion in Umerkot, championing girls' education and supporting widow remarriage to challenge long-standing norms, expanding women's mobility, healthcare access, and economic participation.

PARSAN

Empowering Women
for Healthier Communities

Parsaan has strengthened community health in Umerkot through family planning and maternal health awareness, enabling women to make informed decisions for healthier futures.
